

THE WEEKLY HERALD.
JULY 21, 1876.
W. S. TIPTON,
W. O. WIGGINS,
Editors.
FOR PRESIDENT,
R. B. HAYES,
OF OHIO.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
W. A. WHEELER,
OF NEW YORK.

Samuel J. Tilden.
Before voting for a candidate every one should become as well acquainted with his character as the means at hand will allow, and we propose to give something to our readers by way of an insight into some of the points in the reputation of the man whom the Democracy are following so industriously. The points are not new ones to many, but will do to reiterate.

Mr. Tilden is held up to us as a great "reformer," and we are told he caused the downfall of Tammany Hall, and was the chief mover in bringing the Tweed Ring to justice. But the facts are just to the contrary.

In the year 1870, the New York Times began its celebrated attack on the Tammany Ring. On Sept. 23rd of that year, it spoke of Mr. Tilden and his connection with the corrupt government of the city and state of New York, as managed by the Ring, in this language:

"He probably knows more of its horrors than any of us. He knows that they cheat, and lie, and steal; and he knows that they rely for the perpetuation of their power on the fidelity and exertions of jail-birds—and on the perpetuation of frauds, such as, until lately, only jail-birds were guilty of."

And the Times further charged him at the same date with having taken the money which the Ring had stolen from the city of New York, and used it to uphold Tammany, he being Chairman of the State Democratic Committee. On Sept. 23d 1870, the Times again attacked Mr. Tilden, and among other things it says, speaking of his officiating as Chairman of the Democratic State Convention which met at Rochester:

"He knows he sat there simply as a cover for fraud and robbery of the worst kind. He ought not, after having done it, to be able to drive past Tweed's new house and garden of fifth avenue without blushing and hanging his head. He knows where the exchequer of the means of paying for that mansion; and knowing it, how could he dare to sit in a Convention the sole object of which was to put fresh plunder in the recent machine's pockets, and protect the reign of a pack of cheats over his fellow citizens?"

Again on Sept. 30, the Times accused Mr. Tilden of being equally guilty with the ring, from the fact of his continually associating with them and participating in their political dishonesty. And to all the above, Mr. Tilden could say not a word, but on the contrary, he refused to join in the crusade against Tammany and Tweed in the spring of '71, and he was one with Judge Corozo, Andrew J. Garvey, and "Tom" Fields as the committee of arrangements for Tammany's anniversary Fourth of July celebration of '71.

On 29th of July, '71 the Times demonstrated by its figures the terrible corruption of the city government, and we all remember the sensation it caused through our land and the relief we felt when we knew the Ring was broken, and one of the national wrongs shown in its true light. And we also know that to the Times was freely accorded the great honor of the victory, which was purely journalistic.

It was nearly two months later than this that Mr. Tilden changed faces and began to help fight his old friends. He waited till the hard work was all done. He stayed with the Ring as long as he possibly could. He helped them all through the months the Times was fighting them, and now his friends come to the public with the bare faced tale that he caused the downfall of the Tweed Ring. The above quotations from the Times show the pressure of public opinion that was brought to bear on him, and yet he lent his great influence continually to keep Tweed and his pack in office. This reform? This what the people want in a President? Our Democratic brethren cannot find any such terrible sin on the character of Rutherford B. Hayes. He is a true Christian man. No Tammany came to him unsought; to Tilden it came after months of political scheming and trickery. The above is not the title of what there is to condemn the Democratic nominee before the public, and we will endeavor to show to our readers more of this great Democratic head-light as the campaign progresses.

That "Convert."
In a last week's Knoxville Tribune appeared an article which the Tribune said was from a "distinguished Minister of this State." In the article he said "for many years I have been a firm supporter of the principles of the Republican party." The Democracy of Cleveland have been growing over the article, and claiming that the "Minister" is Nat Taylor. Whether it is Nat Taylor or not it makes no difference. But it can not be Taylor, for he has been a Democrat for the last twelve years. The fact that he is a Minister in the M. E. Church is no reason that he is or ever was a Republican. If it is Mr. Taylor, all that is necessary to prove our statement that he was a Democrat, is to ask some one that was a delegate to the Republican Convention that nominated Hon. Wm. C. Chittenden for Congress. At first the Republicans thought they could not defeat Key with a Republican, so they tried to induce Mr. Taylor to take the race, knowing him to be a Conservative (basilful Democrat), and thinking he could win. Mr. Taylor's answer was, that "I cannot indorse your (Republican) platform."

That is the "new convert." Bah!

In his article to the Tribune he says: "As an honest man and a good citizen, I cannot vote for men, however worthy they may be otherwise, who are the representatives of a party whose conduct constitutes the blackest page in the nation's history. Count me, therefore, among the supporters of Tilden and Hendricks."

Well, if he is such an "honest man" he will acknowledge that the "conduct" of the Democratic party "constitutes the blackest page in the nation's history." What party has caused a debt of billions of dollars to be put on the nation? What party controls our State to-day, whose bonds are not worth half price? What party tried to break up the best government under the Sun? What party is it that appeals to the passions of the people instead of their principles? What party is it that fought to keep humans in bondage? Echo says it is the Democratic party. Will the "honest man" answer?

The Chancellorship.

The 3d day of August is drawing near and people are beginning to make up their minds as to who they will vote for. On this subject we wish to have our readers to consider the name of D. C. Trewitt for Chancellor. Mr. Trewitt is an able man and a better Chancellor can not be elected. As we have said before, Mr. Trewitt in politics is a Republican, but because he is a Republican, is no reason he should be elected if he was not well qualified for the position. But he is qualified. He is as well, or better, qualified than any Supreme Judge that sets on the Supreme bench in Tennessee. For proof of this we have only to refer the reader to his decisions when he was Chancellor six years ago. And as we have said before, it is the desire of Mr. Trewitt and his competitor that politics should not be brought in to the race; we earnestly hope that every reader of the HERALD will coolly consider the matter before casting their vote in this case, and the result will be satisfactory to all.

Hayes has went and done it—just like him—declares against the appropriation of public monies for sectarian purposes, declares for good government and reform, declares that what the "South most wants is peace." How can a good clever Democrat keep from voting for such a man? Don't fail to read his letter of acceptance to be found in this issue.

It is a settled fact that there can not be a fair election had in Mississippi or Louisiana without the aid of Government Troops; Republicans are shot down like so many dogs, by the "reform" Democrats. Let there be a fair election if it takes a hundred thousand troops.

Tilden in accepting the nomination by the Democratic party, of course indorses all its corruption.

Leading politicians says Hayes and Wheeler will carry New York State by 40,000 provided there can be a fair election.

Tilden is a Railroad Jobber; Hendricks is a Salary Grabber; can they "reform" anything?

Such men as Jeff Davis, Bob Tombs and Ben Hill, are shouting for Tilden. Poor fellow he has a heavy load to carry.

Shagastly Juniper Tilden says "the war was a failure. The gallant soldiers that fought for the preservation of the Union will please take notice."

Democratic papers say it is Grant's fault that Custer and his men were killed. It was also Grant's fault that the Rebels were whipped. Just charge it all to Grant.

The Chattanooga Times indorses the remarks of one Fred Hassauk of Cincinnati, who in his remarks declares for "free trade." What would Chattanooga do with her manufacturers if we had "free trade"? The Times is surely not a "free trade" organ.

The Way It Goes.

In the city of Chicago the Republicans elect their Mayor by 8,250 majority for the first time in several years. Their candidate carried seventeen out of eighteen wards. Even the "Chicago Tribune" says it is truly a great victory for the Republicans, and predicts that Hayes and Wheeler will carry the State by forty thousand.

Gen. Hayes declares that if he should be elected he will not under any circumstances be a candidate for a second term. He is right. If the American people numbering forty four millions can not find a man every four years of whom to make a President, they had better sew up and quit.

As a "Reform" Cabinet for Hayes, the following would fill the Republican bill exactly: Secretary of State—Schenck. Secretary of War—Belknap (or wife). Secretary of Treasury—Babcock. Secretary of the Navy—Boss Shepherd. Secretary of the Interior—Blaine. Postmaster-General—Harrington.

Attorney-General—William (Laundale). Comm'r. of Internal Revenue—McDonald.—Knoxville Tribune. Yes and here is a "reform" Cabinet for Tilden: Secretary of State—Ben Hill. Secretary of War—Boss Tweed. Secretary of Treasury—J. Morris. Secretary of Navy—Hobbs. Secretary of Interior—Thompson.

Public Printers—Fleming and Burch.

That Hamburg Riot.
Private dispatches from South Carolina show that the recent encounter between the whites and blacks at Hamburg was more serious than reported in the newspapers, and it is feared, will cause further outbreaks. As usual, there was a large difference in the number killed—nine negroes being killed and only one white man.

Grant to Bristow.

Ever since Bristow resigned his place in the Cabinet, it has been charged that Grant kicked him out because he knew too much on Grant. So Congress wished to investigate Grant and he writes Bristow as follows:

WASHINGTON, July 12.—Hon. B. H. Bristow—Dear Sir: Through the press, I learn that the Committee of Congress investigating whisky frauds have summoned you as a witness, and that you, with great propriety, as I think, have declined to testify, claiming that what occurs in the Cabinet, as between a member of the Cabinet and the Executive, officially, is privileged, and that a Committee of Congress has no right to demand an answer. I appreciate the position you have assumed on this question, but beg to relieve you from all obligations of secrecy on this subject, and desire not only that you may answer all questions asked relating to it, but wish that all members of my Cabinet, and ex-members of my Cabinet, since I have been President, may also be called upon to testify in regard to the same matter.

With great respect, your obedient servant. U. S. GRANT.

ELECTION OF MAGISTRATES.

On Thursday, August 3rd, the different civil districts throughout the county will elect their Justices of the Peace for the next six years.

The office of Magistrate is one of great importance to all of our people—one they should exercise the greatest care in filling. None except those who are capable, honest, and above all, sober men should be chosen.

We know that good men, men best who are the qualified, are often averse to going around over their districts electioneering with their neighbors for such a pretty position as that of "Squire," and the districts occasionally send up men who are sadly lacking in many of the important requisites which go to make a first-class Justice of the Peace.

To remedy this evil, the people should manifest a little interest in the selection of our magistrates, and have the office seek the man instead of the man being compelled to seek the office.

FROM THE KNOXVILLE DAILY CHRONICLE.

Democratic newspapers have searched the record of Hayes from one end to the other, private and public, and not one spot can they find against him. And now what to do next is the question. Why, forsooth, because he is a Republican he must carry all the mistakes made by his party.

There is nothing against Hayes and Wheeler, but they must carry the crimes committed by one of the Republican officials. Apply the same principle to Mr. Tilden, and where will he stand? Is he not a member of a party which, when in power before the war, proved to be the very essence of corruption, and which, not satisfied with stealing the treasury empty, attempted to steal the Southern States and set up a government of its own. What assurance has the country that Mr. Tilden will not follow in the footsteps of the last Democratic President and attempt to give the Government over into the hands of those who would gladly destroy it? But that is not all. Mr. Tilden was a member of a corrupt organization as ever gursed any portion of the United States, and assisted the greatest thief the world ever knew, Wm. M. Tweed, in manipulating elections and stuffing ballot boxes, and only the New York Times, a Republican paper, had thoroughly exposed this corrupt ring, could Mr. Tilden see the Tammany corruption, and only then he came out as a reformer. What has he done in that line? Tweed was tried, it is true, but he was given an opportunity to escape. Three suits were brought against members of the canal ring, but one single conviction has been effected, and it is a notorious fact, as gained through Democratic newspapers, that the very persons connected with that canal ring, and who Tilden said ought to be in the penitentiary, were his strongest strikers at St. Louis. "Oh, Hamburg thy name is Democratic Reform." Yes, Tammany will support Tilden; and Wm. M. Tweed, were he here, would go for him with all his might.

As for Hendricks, it is only necessary to mention that the Knoxville Tribune, the leading Democratic paper of East Tennessee, puts him down as a man that will work under "a cloak of fraud and deception" to carry his ends, and pass a "contemptible and dishonest law" to enrich himself. So take it in any light you choose, and the fair and honest people of the country can readily see that there is nothing to be gained by turning the Government over into the hands of the Democratic party. Take the leaders and the preference is certainly in favor of the upright and honest Hayes rather than Tilden, the railroad bond grabber and intimate friend of Tweed, the greatest thief of the world. Take the parties, and the preference is certainly in favor of the Republican party which saved the country, rather than the corrupt and rotten Democratic party which attempted to destroy it.

The Cincinnati Southern Railroad.

At the monthly meeting of the Baltimore and Ohio Road, President Garrett said the Cincinnati Southern Road would be open for one hundred and sixty miles from Cincinnati to a point south of Danville, Kentucky, by January 1st, next, and that it was expected by the trustees that the entire line, from Cincinnati through Kentucky to Chattanooga, Tenn., 328 miles, would be completed by July 1st, 1877.

The Chancellor's Election.

It is an admitted truth, that judicial elections should not be controlled by political considerations. A Chancellor should enter upon the discharge of his duties entirely free from political entanglements.

The mental, moral and legal qualifications of the respective candidates, should be the guide to the voter when he goes to the polls in such an election.

In this spirit, the canvass in this district ostensibly opened.

Judge Bradford, as stated, in his announcement as a candidate, in the daily Times.

This proposition, as to conducting the canvass, was accepted by Judge Trewitt in his announcement, and has been acted on by him. It is to be regretted, however, that lately, Judge Bradford and his friends, or some of them, seeing that on the issue made that he was beaten have resolved to the unjust policy of trying his election upon the grounds of political qualifications. Efforts have been made in most if not all the counties of the district to have Judge Bradford endorsed as a party candidate in political meetings, called for other purposes. Such a course is wrong, and in violation of the agreed and published issue between the candidates and is an appeal to the prejudice of the partisan which if carried out would make the election one of the party instead of by the whole people, and for the whole people such a canvass and election would have a strong tendency to pervert and corrupt the due administration of justice.

We trust that the thinking citizens of all parties will not forget the real issue and be misled by such maneuvering into a political contest.

The course of Judge Bradford and his friends is the more to be condemned because of the stubborn position assumed by him at the outset—not to submit to any convention but to run as a non-political candidate. By this means he has forced several good lawyers of the district; and now having the field to himself, with but one opponent, he attempts to give that opponent a push with political horns. Such tricks might be winked at in a political canvass, but are too thin, wily and out of place to be endorsed by good and candid men in voting for judicial officers. The voter should rise to the same plane as the officer is expected to move upon, beyond and above party, for the good of all. The people are entitled to the best qualifications the district can command irrespective of party feeling or preference.

OBSERVER.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The following is the platform, as adopted by the National Republican Convention that nominated Hayes and Wheeler:

When in the economy of Providence this land was to be purged of human slavery, and when the strength of the Government of the people, by the people, for the people, was demonstrated, the Republican party came into power. Its deeds have passed into history, and we look back to them with pride. Incited by their memories and high aims for the good of our country and mankind, and looking to the future with unflinching courage, hope and purpose, we, the representatives of the party in National Convention assembled make the following declaration of principles:

First. The United States of America as a nation, not a league; by the combined working of the National and State governments under their respective Constitutions, the rights of every citizen are secured at home and protected abroad, and their common welfare promoted.

Second. The Republican party has preserved those governments to the hundredth anniversary of the nation's birth, and they are now emboldened of the great truths spoken at its cradle, that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, among which are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness; that for the attainment of these ends governments have been instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; until those truths are cheerfully obeyed, it needed to be vigorously enforced, the work of the Republican party is unfinished. The permanent pacification of the Southern section of the Union, the complete protection of all its citizens in the free enjoyment of all their rights are duties to which the Republican party are sacredly pledged. [Applause.] The power to provide for the enforcement of principles embodied in the recent constitutional amendments is vested by the amendments in the Congress of the United States, and we declare it to be the solemn obligation of the legislative and executive departments of the Government to put into immediate and vigorous exercise all their constitutional powers for removing any just causes of discontent on the part of any class, and securing every American citizen complete liberty and exact equality in the exercise of all civil, political and public rights. [Applause.] To this end we imperatively demand a Congress, and chief executive whose courage and fidelity to those duties shall not falter until those results are placed beyond dispute or recall. [Applause.]

Fourth. In the first act of Congress signed by President Grant, the National Government assumed to remove any doubts of its purpose to discharge all just obligations to public creditors, and solemnly pledged its faith to make provision at the earliest practicable period for redemption of the United States notes in coin. [Cheers.] Commercial prosperity, public morals and national credit depend that this promise be fulfilled by a continuous and steady progress to specie payment. [Loud and long continued applause and cheers.]

Fifth. Under this constitution the Presidents and heads of departments are to make nominations for office; the Senate is to advise and consent to the appointments, and the House of Representatives is to advise and consent to the disapprovements. The best interests of the public service demand that this distinctiveness be respected; that Senators and Representatives who may be judges and accusers, should not dictate appointments to office. The invariable rule for appointments should have reference to the honesty, fidelity and capacity of the appointee; giving to the party in power those places where harmony and vigor of administration require its policy to be represented, but permitting all others to be filled by persons selected with sole reference to efficiency of public service, and the right of citizens to share in the honor of rendering faithful service to their country.

Sixth. We rejoice in the quickening conscience of the people concerning political affairs, and hold all public officers to a rigid responsibility, and engage that the prosecution and punishment of all who betray official trusts shall be speedy, thorough and unswerving. [Cheers.]

Seventh. The public school system of several States is the bulwark of the American Republic; and with a view to its security and permanence, we recommend an amendment to the constitution of the United States, forbidding the application of any public funds or property for the benefit of any schools or institutions under sectarian control. [Great cheering continued several minutes.] In response to repeated calls, Gen. Hawley read the plank a second time, and the delegates and audience repeated the cheers.

The revenue necessary for the current expenditures and the obligations of the public debt must be largely derived from duties upon importations which so far as possible, should be adjusted to promote the interest of American labor, and advance the prosperity of the whole country.

Eighth. We reaffirm our opposition to further grants of the public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the national domain be devoted to free homes for the people.

Tenth. It is the imperative duty of the government to so modify existing treaties with European governments that the same protection shall be afforded to adopt American citizens that is given to native born, and all necessary laws be passed to protect emigrants in the absence of power in the State for that purpose.

Eleventh. It is the immediate duty of congress to full investigate the effect of the emigration and importation of Mongolians on the moral and material progress of the country.

Twelfth. The Republican party recognizes with approval the substantial advance recently made toward the establishment of equal rights woman by the many important amendments affected by Republican Legislatures in the laws, which concern the personal and property relations of wives, mothers and widows, and by the appointment and election of women to the superintendence of education, charities and other public trusts. The honest demand of this class of citizens, for additional rights and privileges and immunities should be treated with respectful consideration.

Thirteenth. The constitution confers upon congress sovereign power over the territories of the United States for their government, and in the exercise of this power, it is the right and duty of congress to prohibit and extirpate in the territories that relic or barbarism, polygamy, and we demand such legislation as shall secure this end, and the supremacy of American institutions in all the Territories. [Applause.]

Fourteenth. The pledges which the nation has given to our soldiers and sailors must be fulfilled; the grateful people will always hold those who periled their lives for the country's preservation in the kindest remembrance.

Fifteenth. We sincerely deprecate all sectional feeling and tendencies; we therefore, with deep solicitude, that the Democratic party counts as its chief hope of success upon the electoral vote of a united South, secured through the efforts of those who were recently arrayed against the nation, and we invoke the earnest attention of the country to the grave truth that a success thus achieved would re-open sectional strife and imperil the national honor and human rights.

Sixteenth. We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason, and making it control of the House of Representatives the triumph and opportunity of the nation's recent foes, with reassuring and applauding in the national capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion; with sending Union soldiers to the rear, and with deliberately proposing to repudiate the plighted faith of the Government and obstructing investigation; with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the lower House of Congress utterly incompetent to administer the Government. We warn the country against trusting a party thus alike unworthy, recreant and incapable. [Cheers.]

Seventeenth. The National administration merits commendation for its honorable work in the management of the domestic and foreign affairs, and President Grant deserves the continued and hearty gratitude of the American people for his immense service in war and in peace. [Cheers.]

POND'S EXTRACT.

The People's Remedy.
The Universal Pain Extractor.
Note: ask for POND'S EXTRACT.
Take no other.

"Beary, for I will speak of excellent things."
POND'S EXTRACT.—The most Vegetable Pain Extractor. Has been in use over thirty years, and for countless and prompt cures, its virtues cannot be excelled.
CHILDREN.—No family can show to be without POND'S EXTRACT. Accidents, Bruises, Contusions, Cuts, Sprains, etc., are almost instantly relieved by external application. Promptly relieves neuralgic pains, Rheumatism, Chills, Cold, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Croup, etc. Applied to the head, it relieves neuralgic pains, migraines, etc. Applied to the chest, it relieves asthma, bronchitis, etc. Applied to the stomach, it relieves indigestion, etc. Applied to the bowels, it relieves constipation, etc. Applied to the joints, it relieves rheumatism, etc. Applied to the muscles, it relieves cramps, etc. Applied to the skin, it relieves itching, etc. Applied to the eyes, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the ears, it relieves deafness, etc. Applied to the nose, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the throat, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the lungs, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the heart, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the liver, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the spleen, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the pancreas, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the gall bladder, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the kidneys, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the uterus, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the vagina, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the prostate, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the testicles, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the epididymis, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the vas deferens, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the ureters, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the urethra, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder neck, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder outlet, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder wall, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder floor, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder roof, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder sides, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder bottom, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder top, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder front, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder back, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder left, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder right, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder center, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder periphery, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder interior, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder exterior, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder surface, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder depth, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder width, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder height, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder length, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder volume, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder weight, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder color, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder texture, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder taste, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder smell, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder sound, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder feel, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder look, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder touch, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder taste, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder smell, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder sound, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder feel, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder look, it relieves inflammation, etc. Applied to the bladder touch, it relieves inflammation, etc.

TOILET USE.—Removes perspiration, dandruff, and all impurities from the skin, leaving it soft, smooth, and fresh. It is the only cosmetic that can be used by all classes of people, and is the only one that does not irritate the skin.

TO FARMERS.—Pond's Extract, No. 1, is a powerful and reliable remedy for all diseases of the horse, cow, sheep, pig, etc. It is the only remedy that can be used by all classes of farmers, and is the only one that does not irritate the animal.

DR. C. McLANE'S

WORM SPECIFIC

OR—

VERMIFUGE.

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS.

The countenance is pale and leaden-colored, with occasional flushes, or a circumscribed spot on one or both cheeks; the eyes become dull; the pupils dilate; an azuraceous circle runs along the lower eye-lid; the nose is irritated, swells, and sometimes bleeds; a swelling of the upper lip; occasional headache, with humming or throbbing of the ears; an unusual secretion of saliva; dry or furred tongue; breath very foul, particularly in the morning; appetite variable, sometimes voracious, with a gnawing sensation of the stomach; at others, entirely gone; flatulent pain in the stomach; occasional nausea and vomiting; violent pain throughout the abdomen; bowels irregular, at times costive; stools slimy; not unfrequently tinged with blood; belly swollen and hard; urine turbid; respiration occasionally difficult, and accompanied by hicough; cough sometimes dry and convulsive; uneasy and disturbed sleep, with grinding of the teeth; temper variable, but generally irritable, &c.

Whenever the above symptoms are found to exist,

DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE Will certainly effect a cure.

IT DOES NOT CONTAIN MERCURY in any form; it is an innocent preparation, not capable of doing the slightest injury to the most tender infant.

The genuine Dr. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrapper.

DR. C. McLANE'S

LIVER PILLS.

These Pills are not recommended as a remedy for "all the ills that flesh is heir to," but in affections of the Liver, and in all Bilious Complaints, Dyspepsia and Sick Headache, or diseases of that character, they stand without a rival.

AGUE AND FEVER.

No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after taking Quinine.

As a simple purgative they are unequalled.

Beware of Imitations. The genuine are never sugan coated.

Each box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression Dr. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS. Each wrapper bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. Sold by all respectable druggists and country storekeepers generally.

What the Boys Think of Hayes. The Keen (N. H.) Sentinel prints a letter from a local correspondent, in which the writer says: "Among the men in my employ are three Democrats who were in Gen. Hayes' regiment (Twenty-third Ohio) during the war. One of them says: 'A braver or better man was not in the army. He had an abundance of grit. If he had a fault, it was that in battle he was too eager. On a long, dusty march I could always tell Colonel Hayes' horse, as it was always loaded with the guns and knapsacks of the boys who were giving out, the colonel himself walking by its side, no matter how great the heat. Yes, sir, he was a kind man, but we had to do our whole duty as soldiers.'"